STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

"We have read the school's handbook and are willing to have our child trained in accordance with the standards and goals of Liberty Christian School. We will stand behind the school 100% and will take responsibility to see that our child obeys school policies, or we will withdraw our child from school. We give permission for our child to take part in all school activities, including sports and school sponsored trips off school property. We absolve the school from any liability due to injuries sustained either on school grounds or during an off-campus activity. We understand that photographs of our child taken at school functions may be used in published, promotional materials. We agree to support the high academic standards of the school by encouraging completion of homework and assignments. We understand that any disrespect to the things of God, to the school, or to the staff and faculty will not, in any way, be tolerated."
